

WEEK 11 Being a Guest

Dear Parent/Guardian,

For Your Heart

In this week's lesson, third graders are learning that guests should behave politely at a party to show gratitude to the host for the invitation. Students are learning:

- To ask politely for something they need
- To participate in activities
- To be kind to everyone at the party

For the Heart of Your Child

Your child is learning that being a good guest is more than being appreciative for an invitation. Being a polite guest is showing how much you care for others.

By helping your child understand that they have responsibilities as a party guest, it helps to ensure that the party will be a success for the host and guests alike. This week, ask your child to share some ways that he or she can be a good guest at the next party. Discuss ways your child can:

- Include others in conversations and activities
- Show appreciation for the host
- Help clean up

We are confident that with a little work and practice, your child can become a pleasant and polite guest.

From Our Hearts to Yours,

PS Don't forget to ask what GRATEFUL and POLITE mean!
